

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

Some wisdom found along the way in 35 years of practicing
Texas and Federal Criminal Defense Law

Though the dogs may bark, the caravan moves on.
(This too shall pass!)

Old Arabic Proverb

Bring the past only if you're going to build from it.

I refuse to consent to any search of my premises, my person, the location of my arrest, my vehicle or my possessions. I hereby now exercise my rights under the 5th and 6th Amendments to remain silent and have an attorney present during any questioning.

David Scoggins graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Government in 1976 and thereafter graduated from Texas Tech University School of Law with a Doctor of Jurisprudence.

He immediately obtained his license to practice law from The Supreme Court of The State of Texas and shortly thereafter was licensed in the United States Federal Courts.

In 1981, David Scoggins commenced the practice of law in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex and has resolved over 6,000 cases. He has represented citizens accused in Federal Courts in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Tennessee, typically on drug conspiracy and fraud cases.

He has also tried hundreds of jury trials in Felony and Misdemeanor courts in Texas. He has most often appeared at court in Dallas, Collin, Denton and Tarrant Counties.

He is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell and is rated Superb by AVVO and has the knowledge and experience to get you through this with a purposefully charted course to obtain a result with the least consequences, expense and stress. Check him out on AVVO.
